

Year 1 Class Blog - Where the Wild Things Are

In Wild Things class this week we have been continuing to learn about features of the seaside. Some of these features we saw on our trip to Hunstanton last week. In English this week we have been looking at a wordless book called Flotsam, inferring and writing questions about what we want to know/find out. After half term we are looking forward to learning about sea creatures.

Year 6 Class Blog - Gangsta Granny

NO MORE SATS!!! Phew, we are so relieved to be back to our normal selves, learning about the next challenges and adventures that we will be doing next half term. We are excited to be going to Kidzania at the end of this half term and are looking forward to trying a variety of different jobs. We are all so going to be Starting swimming on Fridays. Maths is really interesting at the moment as we are making our own board games, and we get to enjoy each others games. And finally we are starting to put together our leavers assembly. We will be sad to leave but look forward to year 7.

News from BFG Class

Last week was Deaf Awareness Week. BFG did a KS2 assembly where they talked about how to make a difference when including deaf children. They went on to teach KS2 the alphabet in sign and some colours. They finished by singing 'I Can Sing a Rainbow' in sign. Olivia sang the verse as a solo.
